

IDENTITIES

An exhibit at the Clinton House ArtSpace
in conjunction with the Light in Winter Festival
www.LightInWinter.com

Contact: Robin Schwartz, Community Arts Partnership
273-5072, ext. 2 / programs@artspartner.org

The Community Arts Partnership of Tompkins County is curating an exhibit in the Clinton House ArtSpace in the month of January (Jan. 7 through Jan. 30) featuring 13 artists that have joined together to exhibit work that speaks to the theme of Identities.

The public is invited to the reception on January 18th from 5pm to 7pm. The ArtSpace is located in the Clinton House (huge Greek revival building – yellow with white pillars) on the corner of Cayuga and Seneca Streets.

Participating artists include:

Nerys Gregory 	The Mystic Wood , watercolor
Dick Ruswick	Japanese Fern II , photograph
Marilyn Rivchin	Dancebodies 3 , photograph
Susan Verberg 	Spiderman , photograph
Pamela Moss 	Jalaja's Inner Light , painting
Daniel McPheeters	Heliconia Nights , digital collage
Nari Mistry 	A Question of Identity
Sylvia Taylor	Feral Children , relief print
Nancy Ridenour 	Abstract Lotus , digital
Carol Spence	Birdwatching , mixed media
Chris Wright	Pain in My Hip , photograph
Gwen Curtis	photograph
Jane Dennis	Winning and Losing Identity , mixed media

** Artists are on the Greater Ithaca Art Trail, Visit www.ArtTrail.com to see their work.