

Advocacy Circle Benefits 2017-2018

Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art

Behind the Scenes Tour of New Photography Program

Stephanie Wiles, the museum's Richard J. Schwartz Director, has generously offered CAP Advocate's Circle members a behind the scenes tour, to be scheduled in the fall of 2017, where she will talk about their exciting new photography program, show photographs from the collection, and give a tour of the spaces that will newly renovated to house the museum's photography collections.

The project, "Crossing the Photographic Divide: Mining and Making Meaning," is a four-year collaborative initiative with the Cornell University Library and the Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art which engages the Cornell photography collections and sharing staff and resources in new ways.

Kitchen Theatre Company

Sneak Peak Dress Rehearsals

The Kitchen Theatre is offering CAP Advocate's Circle members the unique opportunity to get a "sneak peek" at a main stage production before it reaches the general public! See how the magic is made by attending a dress rehearsal for any of the Kitchen's seven productions offered in the 2017-18 season! Notification of available dress rehearsal dates will be forwarded to Advocacy Circle members by CAP.

Hangar Theatre

20% Voucher for A Christmas Carol

CAP Advocate's Circle members will receive a voucher through CAP for 20% off regular priced tickets for the Hangar Theatre Company's inaugural Holiday Production of Charles Dicken's A Christmas Carol which runs from December 10-24, 2017. This is certain to become a "must see" holiday tradition, delighting the entire family!

CAP Spring Writes Literary Festival

Invitation to Writer Reception

CAP's annual Spring Writes Literary Festival features over 35 events over four days from May 3-6, 2018. CAP Advocacy Circle Members can meet the participating authors at an invite only wine and cheese reception.

CAP-A-Palooza Annual Art Sale

First Dibs on Art For Sale

Advocate's Circle members will have early access and first pick at CAP's fabulous annual month-long sale of donated art at our exclusive kickoff party on Thursday evening August 31st. The exhibit and sale will officially open to the public on Gallery Night Friday, September 1st.

And More...!

More benefits will be offered as opportunities arise throughout the pledge period.

The Community Arts Partnership's Advocate's Circle seeks to strengthen support of Tompkins County's cultural offerings and opportunities at the local, state, and national levels.
